A high-definition, plasma-screen television can be a costly investment, so it can be frustrating if the TV doesn't turn on when you want it to. Troubleshooting an LG plasma TV that won't turn on is a very general process, as the issue is often due to the TV not receiving any electricity.

My LG Plasma TV Won't Turn On | Hunker

I was looking for a new TV to replace my aging 32-inch Westinghouse LCD TV. I've heard a lot of good things about plasma displays, so decided to go for an 50-inch display that wouldn't kill my wallet. I also wanted to stick with LG as several friends and family members have LG TV, and all have given them rave reviews.
